

Gesù Bambino

Pietro A. Yon

arr. Michael Driscoll

Edition notes: The original was written out with no repeats, requiring 50 measures rather than the current 34. The only difference between the music of the two verses is the breath mark in m. 11, which appeared only on the second verse in the original. The tutti which appears in the bass voice (mm. 6, 24, 26, 29, 33) was placed on all vocal staves in the original. Also, the Italian text has not been included. All other editorial marks are indicated by square brackets.
