

Now Let Us All With One Accord

Sw: solo reed 8' or 4'

Gr: 8', 4', 2'

Ped: 16', 8'

for unison choir with organ accompaniment or

Variations on Bourbon

for organ solo*

Bourbon, melody att, Freeman Lewis (1780-1859),

arr. David McCarthy, ASCAP

Words att. St. Gregory the Great (540-604)

Unison Choir

Organ

$\text{♩} = 60$

f Gr.

5

f

1. Now let us all with one ac-cord, in fel-low-ship with

Sw.

11

mf

a-ges past, keep vi gil with our heav'n-ly Lord in his temp-ta-tion and his fast.

2. The

Gr. 8', 2'

mf

Sw. 8', 4'

*This piece can be played without the choir as an organ solo; if playing with the choir, registrations should be adjusted to balance.

33

p

for our pride. 4. Re - mem - ber, Lord, though frail we be, by

Sw. 8', 2'

Gr. 8'

37

your own kind hand were we made; and help us lest our frail - ty cause

41

your great name to be be - trayed.

beginning registration

Gr. f