

On Christmas Day

Brightly

Words and Music by Liza Walton

1. On Christmas day in Beth le hem, born with out a 2. To shep herds ly ing in their fields an gels sang this
3. Then in the east on Christmas night shone a bright new
4. Then sing we prais es to the babe born to save all crowns, the won drous mir a cle of love from God came song, "Good tid ings of glad joy and peace to near ry star, tell ing the tid ings of his birth both near and men, the Son of God and man, the Lord of earth and down. No tongue can tell, no heart can hold this joy ous one." The news that an gels shared with shep herds on the far. The star that Wise Men foll owed once still shines to heav'n. No tongue can tell, no heart can hold the gift he morn! The King of Kings lies in a man ger sta ble born. hill spread to the wait ing world that wor ships Je sus still.

4

7

10

day in hearts that hope for Christ our King who lights our way.
gave, when with his life he paid the price a world to save.