

Christ, Who Is Mighty

Words and Music by Russell Baker

Christ, who is might-ty was will - ing to be Born in - to mea - gre - ness Jes - us, the guilt-less one, ho - ly and pure, Wel - comed the bro - ken, the God of all pow - er, bent down on His knee, Wash - ing the filth from His Lord of cre - a - tion, how far He has gone; Searching for sinn - ers, our and pov - er - ty. Though He is in - fin - ite hum - bly He came, A out - cast and poor Suff - erers and sinn - ers who called out to Him; He foll - ow - ers' feet. Show - ing the depth of His love to the end; Their God be - came man. See the ex - tent of His glo - ri - ous grace. To child in a man - ger and shad - owed by shame. Breathtak - ing love, and for healed their dis - eas - es and par - doned their sin.

 teach - er and master, their serv - ant and friend.
 cleanse my corr - up - tion, He died in my place.

- give - ness He shows. Mer - cy as - toun - ding in Jes - us I know.

E A A6

Oh, what a won - der if peo - ple could see The grace of my Sav - iour, my

B E AM7

Jes - us liv - ing in me.

E AM7 E