

In The Hush Of Early Morning

Mrs. R. N. Turner

Wm. J. Kirkpatrick

Softly and smoothly with reverence

Introduction

p = 85

(All Parts "Ooh")

1 2 3 4

5 6 7 8

9 10 11 12

13 14 15 16

17 18 19 20

mel.

p 1.) In the hush of ear - ly morn - ing, When the breeze is whis - p'ring low, mp 2.) When the noon - tide falls up - on me, With It's fer - vid, light - ning ray, mf 3.) As the dew - y shades steal down - ward mp O'er the earth at eve - ning mild,

There's a voice that gent - ly calls me, And it's ac - cents well I know!
 There's a voice, di - vine - ly ear - nest, Bids me work while it is day;
 There's a voice I love that whis - pers, p "Af - ter la - bor, rest, my child!"

mp Here am I, O Sav - iour, wait - ing; For Thy will a - lone is mine, mf O - pen, Sav - iour, now be - fore me All Thy will for me to do, O my Sav - iour, lov - ing, ten - der, Help me to ac - count it blest mel.

This is all my crown and glo - ry, mf I am Thine, and on - ly Thine!
 On - ly help me, watch - ing, work - ing, Still to keep my Lord in view!
 Thus to work with - in Thy vine - yard, Till Thou call - est me to rest!