This musical score consists of several systems. The first system features four staves: two vocal staves (treble clef) and two piano staves (bass clef). Each staff begins with a half note followed by a quarter rest. The word "And" is written below the second measure of each staff. The second system features a grand staff (treble and bass clef) with piano accompaniment. The bass line starts with a half note, followed by a quarter note, then a half note with a slur over it, and ends with a quarter note and a fermata. The treble line has a whole note chord in the first measure, a whole note chord in the second measure, and a quarter note in the third measure. The third system features two staves (treble and bass clef) with piano accompaniment. Both staves begin with a half note followed by a quarter rest. The fourth system features three staves (treble, bass, and bass clef with a sharp sign) with piano accompaniment. All three staves begin with a half note followed by a quarter rest.

A single bass staff with a continuous eighth-note accompaniment pattern. The pattern consists of a sequence of eighth notes, starting with a half note followed by a quarter rest, then a series of eighth notes in a steady rhythm.

The sixth and seventh staves are additional piano accompaniment. The eighth staff is a bass clef line, possibly for a cello or double bass. The music is in a common time signature and features a key signature of one flat (B-flat).
