

There's a Wideness

Anon., Arr. by Wayne Hooper

1. There's a wide - ness in God's mer - cy Like the wide-ness
2. For the love of God is broad - er Than the meas - ure of the (of the sea) There's a kind - ness in His just - ice, of man's mind; And the heart of the E - ter - nal (of man's mind)

Which is more than lib - er - ty. He is call - ing, call - ing, Is most won - der - ful - ly kind.

"Come to me," Lord, I glad - ly fol - low Thee! 3. If our love were but more sim - ple, We should take Him at His Word; And our lives would be all sun - shine In the sweet - ness of our Lord. He is call - ing,

A musical score for two voices. The top voice is in G minor, indicated by a treble clef and a key signature of one flat. The bottom voice is in C major, indicated by a bass clef and a key signature of no sharps or flats. The music consists of two staves. The top staff begins with a forte dynamic. The lyrics "Come to me," Lord, I gladly fol - low Thee! (fol - low Thee!) are written below the notes. The bottom staff begins with a forte dynamic followed by a sharp sign. A small asterisk (*) is placed under the first note of the bottom staff. The music features a mix of quarter and eighth notes, with some notes tied across measures. Measure lines are present at the end of each measure, and a repeat sign with a '3' above it and a '4' below it is shown.
