This piano reduction of the Scottish song "Will ye go, lassie, go?" is written for piano in common time (C). The score is arranged in five systems, each with a grand staff (treble and bass clef). The key signature is one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is common time (C). The piece begins with a treble clef and a bass clef, both with an 8. The first system contains measures 1 through 4. The second system contains measures 5 through 8. The third system contains measures 9 through 12, with first and second endings marked above the treble staff. The fourth system contains measures 13 through 16, with a key signature change to two sharps (D major) indicated by a sharp sign on the treble staff. The fifth system contains measures 17 through 20, with first and second endings marked above the treble staff. The piece concludes with a double bar line.
