

Baptismal Hymn

12, 13, 42, 45.

Arr. A. M., Jr.

1. A Chris - tian, now bap - tized, To me much grace is
 2. I'm bap - tized in Christ's name And in His death I'm
 3. Bap - tized, I feel His grace My sin - ful mind sub - 4. O grant me now Thy grace That I, with true de - giv - en. Why was this grant - ed me? That I with bur - ied; How should I fur - ther bear The load so du - ing; And look in all dis - tress To God, my vo - tion, May ev - er by Thee stand, Though storm - y

Christ am ris - en! This is the ho - ly long I car - ried? Thou, Lord, art He who faith re - new - ing. Thou art the cen - tral be life's o - cean. And with Thy bless - ing, aim; He who does this neg - lect Can - not in died And who a - rose a - gain; There - fore in force, Help me to man - i - fest What true bap - Lord, May I in faith re - main, And to that truth pro - claim; "I'm one of God's e - lect." ho - li - ness Through life I will re - main.

tis - m means And what it should at - test.
king - dom come Where peace shall ev - er reign.

5. Baptized am I; now may This truth the whole world ponder.
I live no more as they Who in deep darkness wander;
Baptism urges me
That I by constant prayer Resist the enemy
With power, everywhere.
6. Baptized am I; now shall No wayward thought of erring Cast o'er my heart a spell,
My soul to evil snaring.
For what may tempt my heart,
And every sinful pride,
Upon Thy cross, O Lord, Shall hence be crucified.
7. Now grant to me Thy power
So that I may not waver,
And bless me every hour,
O my beloved Saviour!
Thus shall I safely fare
Upon this blessed way,
And reach the city where Thy peace shall reach for aye.