

Living With Christ

Sue Stieglitz

mel.

1 mel. 2 3 4

1.) Once Christ was just a dis - tant one I'd come to serve some - day,
 2.) I knew He was the on - ly way, but still I would not heed;
 3.) Christ worked with - in my heart, and a true mir - a - cle He wrought;
 4.) Now I am walk - ing by His side, and I have naught to fear;
 5.) He will come back to earth some - day to claim His bride, His own;

5 6 7 8

But at my heart's door He would knock and when I'd lis - ten He would say:
 Sa - tan so ful - ly ruled my life that I could bare - ly hear Christ plead:
 My life was changed from night to day, from Sa - tan's pris - on I was brought.
 When tri - als come and Sa - tan ap - pears a whis - pered pray'r brings Je - sus near.
 I want to meet Him on that Day and go with Him to my new Home.

9 10 11 12

"Oh, child of pleas - ure, sin and pride, O - pen wide the door.
 "Why do you walk the world's wide path? Trou - bles nev - er cease!
 I will for - give you all your sins," He did say to me,
 "I will not leave you com - fort - less, I will come to you.
 "Oh, child, be faith - ful, watch and pray, Spread the gos - pel true.

O - pen wide the door.

13 14 15 16

I will come in and sup with you, And you'll want no more."
 If you will on - ly fol - low Me, You will find true peace."
 If you re - pent and change your life, You'll be ful - ly free."
 I will not leave you com - fort - less, I will see you through."
 Make sure you're read - y for the Day When I come for you."

And you'll want no more."