

Love

Zion's Harp # 37

Arr. by R. Stoller

1 2 3 4 5

1.) Love, of all gifts, is the great-est Which the Spir - it does be - stow
2.) O, Thou Spir - it which has giv - en To me grace to seek my Lord,
3.) Love is of a friend - ly na - ture, Does no self - ish thought pos - sess;

6 7 8 9

Though I had a voice like an - gels, Lack - ing love, I tru - ly know Teach me strive for love of heav - en, And to love, Thy pre - cious word!
Love is not a sin par - tak - er, And is free from bit - ter - ness.

10 11 12

That I'd be - a tink - ling cym - bal; Or a wretch - ed sound - ing
Love has mer - cy and is pa - tient; Hast - y ways it does not Love is truth - ful, not de - ceit - ful, Does here ev - 'ry bur - den brass; own; For al - though the sound were pres - ent, Life - less through this world I'd pass.

13 14 15 16 17

bear; Hum - ble - ness of mind is pres - ent; With true peace it has its home.
And, en - dur - ing, is so fruit - ful In all tri - als joy to share.