

Sometime, Somewhere

A. W. S.

Arthur W. Spooner

1.) An - gels are al - ways sing - ing, Joy - bells are 2.) Peace like a riv - er is flow - ing, Some - where, some-where, God, His full 3.) Home is a - wait-ing God's child - ren, Bright, gold - en ev - er ring-ing, Some-where the sun is shin - ing, par - don be - stow - ing, Some - where, some-where; O - ver the hill - tops of glo - ry, crowns will be giv - en, Then the glad harps will be sound - ing

E - ven in dark - est night; Cease then your sad re - pin-ing, Soon will your Shine the fair streets of gold; Won - der - ful, won - der - ful sto - ry, Nev - er has 'Round the white throne on high; Heav - en with prais-es re- sounding, Nev - er - more sky be bright. Some - time, Some - where, God will make all come right, half been told. Some - time, Some-where, right, come right, pain nor sigh. Some - time, Some - where, up there, Skies will be al - ways bright.