1. O Lord, our God, in whom we trust look down from heav'n a - bove.
 2. We thank Thee for our homes, O Lord, and for each fam - i - ly;
 3. We thank Thee for thy Word of life: it is our guide and stay;
 4. We thank Thee for the beau - ty of cre - a - tion that we see;
 5. The most im - por - tant bless - ing, Lord, that we ap - pre - ci - ate

We come to Thee in pray'r this day to thank Thee for Thy love,
 For health and safe - ty of each one: how grate - ful we can be;
 For par - ents who did teach us of Thy love and how to pray;
 'Tis ev - i - dence of Thy great love that reigns e - ter - nal - ly.
 Is prom - ise of e - ter - ni - ty, to walk through heav - en's gate;

And for Thy mer - cy and Thy grace that helps us on our way.
 And for pro - vi - ding dai - ly bread by bless - ing what we do.
 And for this land of free - dom, Lord, with church - es ev - 'ry - where.
 With sounds of na - ture that we hear, this all does thrill our heart,
 And for Thy Son who died for us that we might live a - gain.

For faith - ful - ness each day, O Lord, ac - cept our thanks we pray.
 Ac - cept our hum - ble thanks, O Lord. We praise Thy name a - new.
 We thank Thee now for all of this, such bless - ings sweet and fair.
 Re - fresh - ing us with pow'r di - vine: O Lord, how great Thou art!
 Ac - cept our heart - felt thanks, O Lord. In Je - sus' name, A - men.
