

A Wedding Prayer

moderately slow, with expression mp

R. L. Stoller

1. This day, O Lord, we come to Thee and ask for grace to pray.
2. For rich - er or for poor - er and in sick - ness and in health,
3. Lord, hear them when they pray to Thee, pro - tect them from all sin,
4. O Lord, we pray Thy bless - ing on the un - ion of these hearts,
5. These mar - riage vows are sac - red ones that two shall now be one,

5 mf mp
Our hearts are filled with joy, O Lord, for this, a wed - ding day.
They prom - ise now their faith - ful - ness, more pre - cious than all wealth;
And guide them with Thy light up - on this path they now be - gin.
Whose lives are drawn to - geth - er with a pro - mise ne'er to part.
And with Thee, Lord, this three - fold chord shall not be fast un - done.

10 mp mf
We ask Thy bless - ing on this day and for this bride and groom;
For bet - ter or for worse, O Lord, they prom - ise ne'er to part.
To - geth - er may they trust in Thee, and as a fam - i - ly
Please be their un - seen guest at home each hour of ev - 'ry day,
May Thy great love be with them, Lord, and now we pray a - gain

15 mf mp
We pray Thy peace up - on them now, and all with - in this room.
What God has joined to - geth - er, now, let man not put a - part.
De - pend up - on Thy grace each day, and live life joy - ful - ly.
And let Thy peace a - bide with - in their hearts in ev - 'ry way.
Thy bless - ing on this wed - ding day. In Je - sus' name, A - men.