

His Name is Jesus

R. L. Stoller

with expression

1. Come now ye chil-dren and gath - er a - round. List to the sto - ry of old where is found,
Shep-herds were watch-ing their sheep in the night, Stars in the sky o - ver Beth - le - hem bright.
2. Jo - seph and Mar - y with man - ger of hay, Made there a cra - dle for ba - by to lay.
Then came the wise men from coun - try a - far, Led by the light of a won - der - ful star,
3. Down thro' the a - ges this sto - ry's been told; Sto - ry of love, it will nev - er grow old.
Hope of all A - ges, De - liv - er - er too; Proph - et and Priest and a Shep - herd so true;

5
Mes - sage of peace and good - will to all men, told thro' the a - ges a - gain and a - gain!
Then came the an - gels, their voic - es did ring, tell - ing the birth of a won - der - ful King!
Born was the Christ child, His life would be - gin there in a sta - ble a - long - side the inn!
Bring - ing rich gifts for this child who was King. Won - der - ful Coun - sel - lor, peace He does bring!
Joy to the world for this glo - ri - ous night! Come all ye faith - ful, sing out with de - light!
Pass - o - ver Lamb, yet a con - quer - ing King; Li - on of Ju - dah, His prais - es we sing!

9 CHORUS
His name is Je - sus! Let ev - 'ry - one sing! Lord and Re - deem - er, our Mas - ter and King!

13 ritard
Son of the Fa - ther from heav - en a - bove! Sav - ior, Mes - si - ah, 'tis God's gift of love!