

I Have Seen With My Eyes

moderate tempo

R. L. Stoller

mf

1. At the tem-ple there was a man named Sim-eon. Moved by Spir-it, he wait-ed at the door.
2. At the coun-cil there stood a man named Ste-phen; For his tri-al they said he broke the law.
3. Dus-ty trav-lers were go-ing to Da-mas-cus, when a light came up-on a man named Saul.
4. On the is-land of Pat-mos he was strand-ed. On a Sun-day, John met the great I AM.
5. Friend, con-si-der your stand-ing with the Sav-ior. Is He Lord of your life in ev-'ry way?

Then when Jo-seph and Mar-y came with Je-sus, He called out, "Lord, I'll not wait an-y-more!"
He spoke bold-ly, his face was shin-ing bright-ly When he cried out and told them what he saw!
He was blind-ed; they led him to the cit-y Where he told them, "My name is Broth-er Paul!"
He was priv-ileged to hear the heav'n-ly choir, Voic-es ring-ing in new Je-ru-sa-lem!
Have you found Him to be a friend so faith-ful? Then re-joice and the world will hear you say!

10 CHORUS

mf

f

I have seen with my eyes the Lord's sal-va-tion! I can feel deep with-in my heart His love!
