

O Lord, Yes I Believe!

moderate tempo
mp

R. L. Stoller

1. There was a fa - ther in de - spair; his son was ver - y ill.
2. A storm had come, the ship was tossed up - on the rag - ging sea.
3. My life was emp - ty and it seemed no pur - pose I could find.
4. Some - times a - round us things can hap - pen we don't un - der - stand.

5 mp

The doc - tors said there was no cure: he sure - ly now would die!
The fish - er - men were fright - ened now; there was no time to think!
I was a sin - ner who was lost and could not find the way!
It shakes our faith and con - fi - dence and dark - ens up our day!

10 mf

He took him to the Lord who asked him, "Can you now be - lieve?"
Then Je - sus came a - cross the waves, bid Pe - ter come to Him.
Then Je - sus called, "Please fol - low me and do not look be - hind!"
But just re - mem - ber what the Sav - ior prom - is - es to you:

15 f

Then all a - round the Sav - ior heard this lov - ing fa - ther cry!
Bold Pe - ter went but was a - fraid and cried out, "Lord, I sink!"
I took that step of faith to Him and with these words did say:
"Be - lieve on me and trust in me; I'm with you all the way!"

CHORUS

20 f mf

O Lord, yes I be - lieve! Just help my un - be - lief!

25 f mf

These fears and doubts com - pass me; no hope I can con - ceive!

30 mf mp

That's why I turn to Thee, O Lord, for strength to see me through.

35 mf f

And now I feel Thy grace a - new! O Lord, yes I be - lieve!
