

A Lamb Of Jesus

Arr. by A. M.

1.) What glo - rious state, to be a lamb of 2.) In pas - tures green the sheep will find its 3.) The lamb a - bides in this good Shep - herd's 4.) All who would live and spend their days in the 5.) Yet this is but the fore - taste of the Je - sus, To feel the faith - ful Shep - herd's pleas - ure; To quench its thirst the pur - est keep - ing; Though all the depths of hell - est com - fort Should come and draw un - to in this full - ness Of joys to fol - low in e - lov - ing grace. In all the earth there foun - tains flow. No hu - man eye the an - ger roar, No rav - ing wolf shall Shep - herd nigh; With heav - 'nly bread He'll ter - ni - ty. The Lamb's e - lect shall is no high - er stand - ing Than grace can ev - er meas - ure Which pluck it from His bos - om; It sat - is - fy their hun - ger, Which feed on heav - 'nly pas - tures, With this, to fol - low in the Sav - iour's He in rich - est full ness does be - trusts in Je - sus' might for - ev - er - world - ly husks can nev - er sat - is - wat - ers from life's stream sup - plied shall ways. What all peace - the world could nev - er stow. A A peace - ful in life the sheep - er more. It rests in blest the se - cur - i - fy. No lack shall of be bless - ings there shall be. Then shall be be ful - ly man - i - give, A lamb of Je - sus spend In ev - er - last - sus ty, And in the - vale - ing be, Since to God's treas - ures fest, How hap - py is a from its Shep - herd will re - ceive. pleas - ures that will nev - er end. death, the Lord its shield will be.

 He, the Shep - herd, has the key.
 lamb of Je - sus and how blest.