61. ALL DEVOTED TO ONE

59, 60.

1. One there is to whom we're cleav-ing, Who
2. Not of us is Thy e-lec-tion; Our
3. Sav-iour, all Thy works so ho-ly Didst for us bit-ter death re-ceiv-ing, Has pur-chased num-ber is Thy own se-lec-tion Through Thy e-Thou be-gin so meek and low-ly, And we are us with His own blood. Now our bod-y, heart, af-fec-ter-nal plan of grace. All our strength is naught but weak-weak as Thou dost see. But we know Thou wilt de-fend tion Are Thine, O Man of great af-flic-tion, And ness, But he who comes to Thee in meekness And Shall us; The light of Thine eyes Thou wilt lend us; Our in Thy love re - pose is good. Ac - cept us help and strength from Thee em - brace. Let not our trust in Thy great strength shall be. The mus - tard as Thine own. Pre - pare for Thy re - nown All Thy own will reign: Our pov - er - ty is gain For Thy seed so small At length will grow with - al Great and chil - dren. O do not hide Thy grace - ful light which king - dom; The poor and weak Thy ref - uge seek And might - y, Since Thou, O Lord, Its keep - er art To shines from Thy sweet face so bright. bear re - proach, con - tempt and shame. whom its care God doth im - part.

113.