

Arise For The Light Cometh!

1.) One flock and a Shep-herd dear! What a glor - ious vis - i - 2.) Watch-man, is the day a - far? See the morn - ing light is 3.) Come Thou, Shep-herd, faith - ful One; May Thy light dis - pel the 4.) See the dark clouds pass a - way With the morn - ing light's ap - ta - tion When Thy day will once ap - pear To re - store us gleam - ing; Light from the bright morn - ing star Through the dark - est dark - ness! From Thee and Thy lit - tle fold Err - ing lambs have pear - ance. Thirst - ing stran - gers kneel to pray By the fount of full sal - va - tion. Let His light wake thee from sleep; clouds is stream - ing. Strang - ers blind - ed sigh for light;

 strayed so help - less. Lit - tle flock, now cease to weep;
 life in rev - 'rence, Till they see the morn - ing light;

Je - sus will His prom - ise keep! Je - sus will His prom - ise keep.
 He shall make His prom - ise right. He shall make His prom - ise right.
 Je - sus will His prom - ise keep. Je - sus will His prom - ise keep.
 Je - sus makes His prom - ise right. Je - sus makes His prom - ise right.