

Awake, Ye Witnesses

(mel.)

1.) A - wake, ye wit - ness - es! Be - bur - ning In deep - est 2.) Has love's bright flame died each out a - mong us? Nay, it shall 3.) Thou Shep - herd hast each one en - treat - ed To work and love; in - flame al - so our hearts; Let from a - bove de - burn in - tense - ly and with zeal, Shall be the pow'r and do with dil - i - gence Thy will; Ne'er shall Thy love in scend up - on us The fier - y tongues that with their flam - ing in - spi - ra - tion That brings forth fruit of sweet - ness, pure - ing us be - wa - ning, And as it bound the saints, so bind and darts real; Rise up and melt to - geth - er we im - still. It wafts to us hope where cool - ing heav'n - ly It gives us hope where we in fear would pire, In fer - vent heat the faith - ful e - ver and - more!

(mel.)

 breeze, Gives us in con - flict vic - to - ry and peace.
 groan, Leads us to trust in Thy good help a - lone.