

Behold The Lamb Of God

1.) O, slaugh - tered Lamb, by whom the seal was bro - ken,
 2.) All Sa - tan's host has been by Thee de - feat - ed
 3.) Thou pre - cious Lamb, what great things Thou hast pro - mised!

4 That gave me com - fort and e - ter - nal cheer!
 There - fore I lack not strength when bat - tles rage;
 Words of e - ter - nal truth didst Thou de - clare,

8 My faith sends up to yon - der Zi - on's moun - tain A look of My free - dom from death's bond has been com - plet - ed; I know where -
 "No wolf shall pluck a sheep out of my bo - som; No foe shall 13 long - ing to Thee Lamb so dear! Thou art, O Lamb now raised on high, to now leads my pil - grim - age. The cross was path to joy for Thee;

 e - ven bend a sin - gle hair!" I count my - self a - mong Thy blest;

18 mel. What won - der that my thoughts would e - ver to Thee fly!
 Shall not the mem - ber have with the head u - nit - ed be?
 I know Thy wounds have gained for me e - ter - nal rest.