

Come Now Saith The Lord

W. W. D.

James McGranahan

1 mel. 2 3 4

1.) Come souls that are long-ing for pleas-ure, Our Sa-viour has pleas-ures to 2.) The pleas-ures of sin are de-ceiv-ing, They've noth-ing for yes-ter-day's 3.) The pleas-ures of sin are all fleet-ing, They van-ish with life's pass-ing 4.) Then all who are long-ing for pleas-ure, Ye wea-ry and all who are 5.) Of Je-sus, thy choice be now mak-ing, Re-deem-er, and Sav-iour, and give; Come find in His love the rare treas-ure, That makes ev-'ry true pleas-ure pain; But hope of to-mor-row re-ceive-ing, And then its to-mor-row a-morn; Like dew-drops the morn-ing sun greet-ing, They glis-ten and then they are worn; Come find in the Lord a sure treas-ure, That from you shall nev-er be Lord; And soon in the glo-ry a-wak-ing, You'll share in the Saint's blest re-

5 6 7 8

9 mel. 10 11 12 13

live.
 gain.
 gone. Come now saith the Lord, let us rea-son, Come now, and your pur-pose de-clare; Is it torn.
 ward.

14 15 16 17

pleas-ures of sin for a sea-son, Or pleas-ures the glor-i-fied share?