

I Dreamed That The Great Judgment Morning

Bert Shadduck

L. L. Pickle

1.) I dreamed that the great judg-ment morn-ing Had dawned and the trum-pet had blown;
2.) The rich man was there, but, his mon-ey Had melt-ed and van-ished a-way;
3.) The wid-ow was there with the or-phans, God heard and re-mem-bered their cries;
4.) The mo-ral man came to the judg-ment, But his self-right-eous rags would not do;

5 I dreamed that the na-tions had gath-ered To judg-ment a-round the white Throne;
6 A pau-per, he stood in the judg-ments, His debts were too heav-y to pay!
7 No sor-row in Heav-en for-ev-er, God wiped all the tears from their eyes;
8 The men who had cru-ci-fied Je-sus Had passed off as mor-al men, too;

10 From the throne came a bright shin-ing an-gel, And stood on the land and the sea,
11 The great man was there, but, his great-ness, When death came was left far be-hind!
12 The gam-ble was there with the drunk-ard, And the man who had sold them the drink,
13 The soul that had put off sal-va-tion, "Not to-night; I'll re-pent, by and by,

And swore with his eyes raised to Heav - en, That time was no lon - ger to be.
 The an - gel that o - pened the re - cord, Not a trace of his great - ness could find.
 With the peo - ple who gave him the li - cense, To - geth - er in hell they did sink.
 No time now to think of re - li - gion!" ...At last they had found time to die.

They cried for the rocks and the moun - tains, They prayed, but their pray'r was too late.
