The musical score is written for voice and piano. It features a treble clef for the voice line and a bass clef for the piano accompaniment. The key signature is three sharps (F#, C#, G#) and the time signature is 3/4. The score is divided into three systems, each with five numbered measures. The lyrics are printed below the voice line, with some words aligned with specific notes. The piano accompaniment consists of chords and single notes that support the vocal melody.
