

Longing For The Homeland

1 mel

2 3 4 5 6

1.) When sound the hour, O when will I be there? Home, O sweet home!
 2.) But, my dear Sav - iour, Thy will may be done! Would fain be here!
 3.) Hap - py on earth and so hap - py a - bove, Wish noth - ing more!

7 8 9 10 11 12

Home, O sweet home! Sav - iour, to meet Thee in heav - en so fair?
 Would fain be here! Striv - ing with sin till the bat - tle is won,
 Wish noth - ing more! To have Thee, Sav - iour, for me is e - nough!

13 14 15 16 17 18

Home, O sweet home! Home, O sweet home! Here on this earth there is Would fain be here! Would fain be here! Lov - ing the Broth - ers and Wish noth - ing more! Wish noth - ing more! Pa - tient in suf - fring, in 19 20 21 22 23 24

sor - row and grief, On - ly a - bove would my soul find re - lief, Sis - ters in Thee, Wait - ing my com - ing, for then I shall see tri - als found true; So hap - py when my de - part - ure is due!

25 26 27 28

There - fore my long - ing for Thee doth in - crease,
 Man - sions pre - pared there in heav - en for me,
 Christ, my faith's Au - thor and Fin - ish - er, too,

29 30 31 32

Home, O sweet home!
 Would fain be here!
 Wish noth - ing more!

Home, O sweet home!
 Would fain be here!
 Wish noth - ing more!