

Lord, Thou Art Great

Joh. And. Cramer (1723-1768)

(Alte Lieder 4)

Just. H. Knecht (1752-1817)

Arr. by A. M., Jr.

1. Lord, Thou art great be - yond com - par - ing! No tongue is
2. There - fore I'll praise Thy name sin - cere - ly, I know Thy
3. Cre - a - tion waits on Thee, O Fa - ther; In Thy a - 4. Re - joice, my soul, with ju - bi - la - tion! Sing to God wor - thy of de - clar - ing; None can Thy glo - ry com - pre - hands hold me se - cure - ly, Guard - ing my soul both day and bund - ant fields we gath - er Fruits lav - ished by Thy boun - teous hymns of ex - al - ta - tion! Ex - tol His name to all man - hend. Thy splen - dor prompts our ad - u - la - tion, night; All world - ly lusts and ease de - ny - ing, Hand; Thou sat - is - fi - est souls with good - ness kind! Thy won - drous works on earth a - bound - ing

Thou fount of life for all cre - a - tion; Light is Thy gar - ment On Thee a - lone am I re - ly - ing, Thou, in whompeace and Grac - ing our long - ing hearts with glad - ness; Thy bless - ings nur - ture Ech - o Thy praise in heav'n re - sound - ing, Thou who cre - a - tion rad - i - ant. In Heav - en's high - est bound - less por - tals, joy u - nite; Thou send - est balm when hearts are brok - en, ev - 'ry land. Thy vis - age, Lord, beams forth sal - va - tion;

 has de - signed; Ex - alt Him, all ye hosts of heav - en!

Dwell - ing un - seen by hu - man eye; A - bove the stars, a - Thy heal - ing grace dost Thou im - part; In joy and pain, Thy Thou giv - est life to all the earth; Shouldst Thou with - draw, what Wor - thy is God of all ac - claim; Each knee shall bow in mong im - mor - tals, Thy glor - ious throne is built on high!

 prom - ise spok - en Gives ac - cess to Thy Fa - ther heart.
 des o - la - tion! Man's strength would turn to dust and dearth.
 earth and heav - en; Each tongue con - fess His ho - ly name!