

Not A Brooklet Floweth

Alice C. Jenings

A. M., Jr.

1 mel. 1.) Not a brook - let flow - eth On - ward to the sea, Not a sun - beam
2.) Not a flow'r - et fad - eth, Not a star grows dim, Not a cloud o'er-
3.) Not a tie is brok - en, Not a hope laid low, Not a fare - well
4.) Pow'r e - ter - nal rest - eth In His change - less hand; Love im - mor - tal

6 glow - eth On its bo - som free, Not a seed un - fold - eth
7 shad - eth, But 'tis marked by Him. Dream not that thy glad - ness
8 spok - en, But our God doth know. Ev' - ry hair is num - bered,
9 hast - eth, Swift at His com - mand. Faith can firm - ly trust Him
10

11 To the glo - rious air, But our Fath - er hold - eth It with - in His care.
12 mel. 13 God doth fail to see; Think not in thy sad - ness He for - get - eth thee.
14 Ev' - ry tear is weighed In the change - less bal - ance Wis - est Love hath made.
15 In the dark - est hour, For the key she hold - eth To His love and pow'r.
16