

Now From The Altar Of My Heart

John Mason

John B. Dykes

Arr. A. M., Jr.

mel.

1. Now from the al - tar of my heart Let sweet - est
2. A - wake, my love! a - wake my joy! A - wake my
3. This day God was my sun and shield, My Keep - er
4. Lord of my time, whose hand hath set New time up - in - cense rise: As - sist me, Lord, to of - fer heart and tongue! Sleep not, when mer - cies loud - ly and my Guide; His care was on my frail - ty on my score, Then shall I praise for all my up Mine eve - ning sac - ri - fice.

call; Break forth in - to a song.
shown, His mer - cies mul - ti - plied.
time, When time shall be no more. A - MEN.