

One Thing Is Needful

Arr. A. M., Jr.

1. One thing's need - ful! Then, Lord Je - sus, Keep this
2. Wilt thou find this one thing need - ful? Seek not
3. Thus my long - ings, heav'n - ward tend - ing, Je - sus, 4. Wis - dom's high - est, no - blest treas - ure, Je - sus, one thing in my mind; All be - sides, though 'mid cre - at - ed things; What is earth - ly rest a - lone on Thee; Help me, thus on is con - cealed in Thee! Grant that this may first it please us, Soon a griev - ous yoke we find, leave be - hind thee; O - ver na - ture stretch thy wings.

Thee de - pend - ing; Sav - iour, come and dwell with me!
still the meas - ure Of my will and ac - tion be.

Be - neath which the heart is still fret - ting and For where God and man both in one are u - Al - though all the world should for - sake and for - Hu - mil - i - ty there and sim - pli - ci - ty striv - ing, No true, last - ing hap - pi - ness ev - er de - nit - ed, With God's per - fect ful - ness the heart is de - get Thee, In love I will fol - low Thee, nev - er to reign - eth And heav - en - ly know - ledge and wis - dom ob - riv - ing; The gain of this one thing all loss can re - light - ed; There, there is the worth - i - est por - tion and quit Thee, Lord Je - sus, both spir - it and life is Thy tain - eth; O, if I of Christ have this know - ledge di - quite, And teach me in all things to find true de - light. best, My One and my All and my joy and my rest. word. Where is there a joy which Thou dost not af - ford?

 vine, The ful - ness of heav - en - ly wis - dom is mine.