

OPEN WIDE THE GATES

Arr. by A. M., Jr.

1. Let ev - 'ry gate be o - pened wide, The
2. A - round Him sings the might - y throng Which
3. All who to Christ's es - tate be - long Come
4. O Thou who did our sor - row bear, When
5. Lord, here do we a - wait Thine hour, The King of glo - ry to in - vite With grace and suf - fered in their fet - ters long, In free - dom

now with glad and joy - ful song, His cov - e - shall there be e - nough of prayer And praise in time so full of love and pow'r When all shall truth a - bound - ing! He that from sin has now re - joic - ing. Once they were bound, but nant es - tab - lish! Let us His hand - i - this world sound - ing? When shall the na - tions, reach fru - i - tion; The des - ert blooms as turned his face Wak - ened from death - ly now are free; Once they were blind, but work be - hold, His king - dom help to Thee, Lord, know, And to Thy ho - ly par - a - dise. In bit - ter springs sweet sleep by grace In light is now a - bid - ing.

 now they see; Once they were dead, now liv - ing.
 build and mold; His Word will stand for - ev - er.
 tem - ple go, With grace and love a - bound - ing?
 wa - ters rise When Thy word fills its mis - sion.

Hear Him, See Him, Fight - ing glo - rious
 Gra - cious, pre - cious, to the faint - ing
 Go ye! Strive ye, to in - spi - re
 To Thee hum - bly All may en - ter;
 Lord, Thou say'st now; "Storm, be go - ing!

And vic - to - rious; Night is lift - ed,
 He is grant - ing Free sal - va - tion
 And to hi - re Heirs of heav - en!
 In Thee cen - ter Hope for - ev - er;
 Light, be glow - ing! Flee, dark sad - ness!

All with light and glad - ness gift - ed.
 With - out bound or lim - i - ta - tion.
 Heart and soul to Christ be giv - en.
 May we leave Thy serv - ice nev - er!
 Zi - on, grow thou strong in glad - ness!"