Be our earth - ly pil - grim - age But an hum - b'ling school,
That the Lord, though hea - vens rend, Keeps us to the last.
And the food for pro - phet lone Sent on ra - ven's wing;
And with - out whose will no hair From our head may fall;
For us plain - ly marked the path To the realms a - bove;
Keeps His pro - mise, Breaks it not, Com - forts heart and mind.

Yet we are of joy - ful mind, Trust - ing not there - on
Though our strength so oft in - deed Threat - ens to take wing,
He who with few fish and bread Mul - ti - tudes did feed,
To whom Great is not too great, Small is not too small,
He who keeps that home pre - pared, Would He e'er al - low fear,
Though you may see trou - ble nigh -- Pil - grim do not fear,

What our - selves we do or find, But that Christ is strong.
We keep faith, there is no need, We still have our King.
Has He not, when all is said, Help in ev - 'ry need?
Could He real - ly come too late, Or not heed our call?
Those for whom He sure - ly cared All to per - ish now?
Look in faith to God on high For your help is near!
