

"Peace, Be Still"

Palmer Hartsough

Fred. A. Fillmore

1. Now up - on the trou - bled o - cean Falls the night so drear and dark;
2.) So when on his burn - ing pil - low, Tossed with pain the suff - 'rer lies,
3.) When the hosts of sin as - sail - ing, Ruth - less hurl the hell - ish dart,

5 Wind and wave in wild com - mo - tion Rude - ly toss our help - less bark;
6 And his woe, like rag - ing bil - low, All earth's fee - ble aid de - fies,
7 And when doubts and fears pre - vail - ing, Al - most crush the faint - ing heart,

9 "Peace, be still," "Peace, be still," Je - sus speaks and tem - pests sleep;
10 "Peace, be still," "Peace, be still," Je - sus speaks in ac - cents blest;
11 "Peace, be still," "Peace, be still," Je - sus speaks and con - flicts cease;

13 At His word, At His word, Tran - quil is the deep.
14 At His word, At His word, All is hushed to rest.
15 At His word, At His word, All is peace, sweet peace.
16

Public Domain

Copyright © 1896 by Fillmore Brothers in "Fillmore's Male Choir".