

The Journey To Zion

(Zion's Harp # 185)

mel.

1 2 3 4

1.) Come, child-ren, let us jour - ney; The eve - ning draw - eth near;
2.) A - dorn not house nor bo - dy, Em - bell - ish but your heart!
3.) Should weak ones ev - er stum - ble, The strong - er will take hold;
4.) Then jour - ney on re - li - ant; The goal is well worth - while.

5 6 7 8 9

Our path is full of dan - ger; The de - sert, dark and drear!
We are but wear - y stran - gers, And soon we shall de - part.
We care and help each oth - er And plant love in the fold.
Of all things be de - fi - ant That hin - der or be - guile!

10 11 12 13 14

En - cour - age now your heart To fu - ture life to wan - der,
All flesh - ly ease de - ceives; As pil - grims all re - sign - ing,
In clo - ser un - ion found, Let each one be the hum - blest,
Earth, thou art small in - deed: With Christ Him - self to guide us,

15 16 17 18 19

Grow strong un - til up yon - der All grief and woe de - part.
All world - ly lust de - clin - ing At Home, you'll find re - lief.
But al - so be the pur - est, As pil - grims, Home - ward bound.
E - ter - ni - ty shall hide us; For Christ is all we need!