

The Music Of Heaven

E. A. Hoffman

J. H. Hall

Mel.

1.) The mu - sic of heav - en is sweet - er in meas - ure And pur - er in ev - er - y strain,
2.) The mu - sic of heav - en is grand - er in rhym - ing Than a - ny that mor - tal e'er toned,
3.) The mu - sic of heav - en, no mor - tal can sing it, Save he who at - tunes his poor soul,

4.

5. Than the mu - sic of earth, tho' it fills us with pleas - ure, As it thrill - ing - ly rolls o - ver
6. And the man - sions of glo - ry for - ev - er are chim - ing With the songs that a - rise to the
7. At the throne of the Fath - er, to swell and to ring it, With the an - gels to make it thro'

8.

9. Obligato

10. Oh, mu - sic of heav - en So
11. val - ley and plain.
12. Sa - viour en - throned.
13. Par - a - dise roll. Oh, mu - sic of heav - en! So rich and so sweet; Oh,

14. rich and so sweet; Oh, joy that it
15. mu - sic of heav - en! So rich and so sweet! Oh, joy that it brings us so
16. brings us! So full and com - plete.
17. full and com - plete; Oh, joy that it brings us so full and com - plete.
18.