Arr. by A. M., Jr.

1. Up - on a storm - y sea of life, Thru man - y storms and gales,
A stur - dy ship does bear us on As t'ward our port it sails.
2. Of all pro - vi - sions there's no lack, We have the liv - ing bread;
And liv - ing wat - er we candrink, On our longcourse a - head.
3. Of an - y storm we have no fears, We have a well - built ark,
And at the helm we have a Man Who guides this sav - ing bark.
4. Be - hold the land can now be seen Tho' clouds be - fore it lie,
But clear - er it does soon be - come To faith's keen sin - gle eye.

This ship of faith is God's own ark, Our Cap - tain is the Lord,
Our an - chor is our sav - ing hope, God's word our com - pass true,
If He com - mands the wind and sea The bil - lows no more roll;
Soon we shall reach the pear - ly shore With life's sea safe - ly crossed;

It car - ries to the land of rest All pass - en - gers on board.
Which points to us the liv - ing way On which we must pur - sue.
Thru all the dan - gers He will bring Us safe - ly to our goal.
There we shall sing, "Yea great things hath Our God per - formed for us!"
