

We Are Well Able

Mrs. F. W. S.

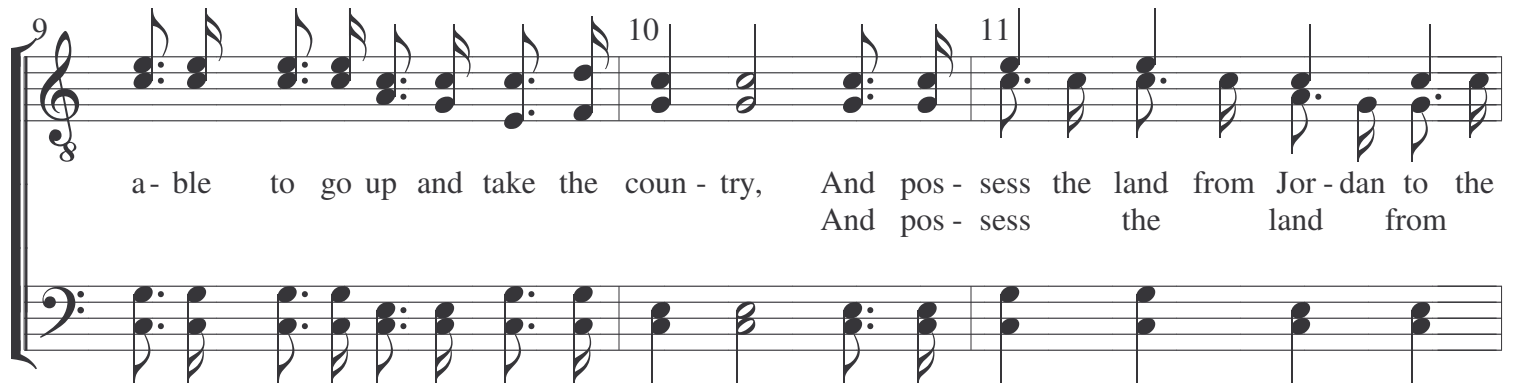

Mrs F. W. Suffield

1.) 'Twas the Lord of hosts that led us out of E- gypt's sand; And He 2.) When the spies bro't back the mes - sage, this is what they said; "A - gainst 3.) When we crossed the riv - er Jor - dan, in the land we found; Wind and 4.) There's no thirst - ing for old E - gypt, since we're in this way, And we led us thru the Red Sea by His migh - ty Hand, Nev - er gi - ants and walled ci - ties, we can - not be led;" But oil, and milk, and hon - ey, rich - est fruits a - bound; Spark - ling care not what the cri - tics or the ten spies say; For the halt - ing in the wil - der - ness, but His com - mand gave as - Ca - leb and a Josh - ua said, "They'll be as bread; We are foun - tains, and the show - ers come up - on the ground; We were land a - bounds in plen - ty, and we're here to stay, Won't you sur - ance we were a - ble to pos - sess the land. We are a - ble to go up, pos - sess the land a - head.

a - ble, Hal - le - lu - jah! let God's praise re - sound.
come and join us bro - ther, en - ter in to - day?

9
a - ble to go up and take the coun - try, And pos - sess the land from Jor - dan to the
And pos - sess the land from 12

sea; And tho' gi - ants tall be there our way to Jor - dan to the sea;

14
hin - der, God will sure - ly give the vic - to - ry 15 16