

Where Shall I Go?

(Alte Lieder 8)

J. Ph. Naumann (1774-1849)

F. Schubert (1797-1828)

Moderately

Arr. A. M., Jr.

p mf

1. Where shall I go for strength - 'ning When
2. If life were lived with - out Thee, What
3. May al - ways I ap - proach Thee With 4. Thy Word is sweet - ly speak - ing To

p mf

p heav - y loads are press - ing? Whom joy for me could there - be? A my deep grief so heav - y? While me, sin - cere - ly seek - ing To

p

mf

shall I tell when sor - rows And tri - als do a - drear - y des - ert trav - eled, And left to fate a - walk - ing earth's dark val - ley, Un - worth - y of God's hear, "I shall re - fresh thee, All fear shall now take

mf

bound?
lone.
love.
wing."

To Thee, oh gra - cious Fa - ther, I Thou giv - est to my path - way, A
With child - like trust and long - ing, I Hark! How I feel re - newed now. Naught come, Thy help now seek - ing. I trust, Thy Word here won - drous goal e - ter - nal, A home in heav'n su - seek Thy arms while cry - ing, On Thee, Lord, I'm re - shall from Thee here sev - er. Thanks, praise and joy for - keep - ing, Thou heal - est eve - ry wound.

per - nal; Pre - pared there for Thine own.
ly - ing, Be - mer - ci - ful to me!
ev - er, Re - deemed, with joy we sing.